

Cute Is What We Aim For, Hidden Track

You've been askin'
I've been drinkin'
Thinkin about this godforsaken life I lead
It's a memory, I made it be
My lips went white, my spine teased tight
I realized it was gonna be a long night
Buttons prove to be sexier in moments like these Sexier in moments like these
This is love, and this is lust
I made it to be the best
And if I were to be the best, maybe you would trust
This is love, and this is lust
Which one do I trust?
