

Cutting Crew, Ricochet

Eede/MacMichael

It's so hard, there's no words
When I think about you baby
No moves can undo, what I think bout you baby
You're shooting high and reached your sky
And nothing can bring you down

You bought a ticket, now you're on your way
But you don't worry 'bout the price you paid
A lover and a fighter but you blew your aim
And I got caught by the ricochet
Yeah I got caught by the ricochet

I'm mixed up, gotta pick myself up
And look straight ahead
It's no use, gotta stick to my roots and give as I get
But I can't fight, she's shooting blind
And nothing can stop her now

You bought a ticket, now you're on your way
But you don't worry 'bout the price you paid
A lover and a fighter but you blew your aim
And I got caught by the ricochet
Yeah I got caught by the ricochet
