

Cutting Crew, The Last Thing

Eede/MacMichael

I won't wait for you, i won't wait for you in the morning
'cause the last thing that i want is to see you cry

and i won't ask of you, and i won't ask of you no secrets
'cause i don't want to be the one to see you cry

help me mama, help me mama through these things i feel help me father, help me father
so i can believe...

so i won't shelter you, i won't shelter you
in the morning

so i can believe...

so i won't give to you, i won't give to you forgiveness
no the last thing that i want
is to see you cry
no the last thing that i want
is to see you cry
