

Cyan Kicks, Hurricane

I'm laying quiet on the floor
No need to hide, I can feel it coming
I keep on pushing through the war
I've realized I was never yours
Don't try and shut me off
I'm here to talk
I'll never bow
I will never give it up
'Cause I'm not here to settle down
Just like a hurricane
We're tearing down the walls
Not gonna settle for less
We know we're powerful
Don't try to shut us off
We're not gonna shut up
We will never give up
This hurricane won't stop
Don't try to drag me off my throne
The more you give the more I'm gone
We love to fight not backing down
I am not settling for crowns no more
Don't try and shut my mouth
We're here to talk
We'll never bow
I will never give you up
'Cause we're not here to settle down
Just like a hurricane
We're tearing down the walls
Not gonna settle for less
We know we're powerful
Don't try to shut us off
We're not gonna shut up
We will never give up
This hurricane won't stop
They try to shut us up
This hurricane won't stop
They try to shut us up
This hurricane won't stop
This hurricane won't stop
Just like a hurricane
We're tearing down the walls
Not gonna settle for less
Just like a hurricane
We're tearing down the walls
Not gonna settle for less
We will never give up
Just like a hurricane
We will never give up
They try to shut us up
They try to shut us up
