

Cybersutra, Summer Sutra

Oooh aaah

Come straight through window
Going out to meet today
Rings of light like an outward glow
Falling off me again and again
I hear the sound of the sea
I hear her voice
I feel her calling after me
I feel I have no choice

There is something about today
That makes me feel this way
Summer sutra

There is something about today
There's something I should say
It's summer sutra

Your reflection of shimmering light
Won't let me sleep again
Pretty patterns passing far and wide
Our mind's alive
And awake within
I dream of long, empty shores
I hear the crash of the wave
I know this dream is also yours
So let's meet today

Oooh aaah

I feel it now
Summer sutra
I hear your sound
Summer sutra
