

Cyclefly, Crawl Down

You move like a slow train, on rubber wheels,
Crawl from the drainway to covet me.

You lie in a doorway and softly scream.

I want to be obscenity.

I am the pleasure you call pain,

The flash that lacerates your brain.

The undisputed King of shame.

Your focus your brain-waves, on sodomy,

Roll in the black rain, in agony,

You died in a doorway, reflecting me,

I want to be obscenity

I am the pleasure you call pain

The flash that lacerates your brain,

The undisputed King of shame.

I am the heroin you sort, the bloody fetus you abort

We all crawl down

We all crawl down

I am the pleasure you call pain,

The flash that lacerates your brain,

The undisputed King of Shame

I am the heroin you sort, the bloody foetus you abort,

We all crawl down

We all crawl down
