

Cyndi Lauper, No One's Home

Leave me alone
I'm not home
Don't hear your knock at the door
I'm running away so don't call
There'll be no answer today

There's no one at home
There's no one at home
Oh there'll be no one at home
There's no one at home oh oh
Oh there'll be

Don't ask me why
Time goes by, I haven't heard from the witness
No things are play
So don't call me
There'll be no answer today

There's no one at home
There's no one at home
Oh there'll be no one at home
There's no one at home
Oh there'll be

Be better if I fall...after all
I'm always crying crying
So would you catch me if I fell
When there no one listening
To hear what happened
When I'm all on my own

Leave me alone
I'm not home
Don't hear your knock at the door
I'm running away so don't call
There'll be no answer today

There's no one at home
There's no one at home
Oh there'll be no one at home
There's no one at home
Oh there'll be

Be better if I fall...after all
I'm always crying crying
Know if you catch me if I fell
And there's no one listening
To hear what happened
When I'm all on my own
No one at home
No one at home

No nah nah nah nah nah nah
Nah na no no hah hah
No nah nah nah no no no no uh oh
