

D:a:d, Between You & Me

Yeah, I left my past
I hitchhiked away from bad times
I tried to get used to
The freedom to speak what's on my mind

When it turns to tears
Wonder why, the dreams are under my pillow
But there are no answers
Yeah, love is a riddle

Heey, so many times when I complain about life
I'm unsatisfied
I guess, it's not about the car that I drive
Or the house I came by
It's dry tears I cry
I know that all I need is
That it's easy and free
Between you and me

Yeah, tear down my arms
And drag me away from old troubles
I feel there's a hint now
That keeps me from getting to close to it

Heey, so many times when I complain about life
I'm unsatisfied
I guess, it's not about the car that I drive
Or the house I came by
It's dry tears I cry
I know that all I need is
That it's easy and free
Hey that it's eay and free
Between you and me
Between you and me, yeah

Heey, so many times when I complain about life
It's not the car that I drive
It's dry tears I cry
Hey, I know all I need is
That it's easy and free
Between you and me

So many times when I complain about life
I'm unsatisfied
I guess, it's not about the car that I drive
Or the house I came by
It's dry tears I cry
I know that all I need is
That it's easy and free
Between you and me
