D'Sound, I Want U 2 B With Me when I get off the stage Ive given what Ive had to give to anyone I dont feel good nor bad I go back to my room and dont relate to anyone when I am on a plane to conquer all my dreams and everything s ok and Im a lucky girl I see you in a cloud I dont know what Im doing here

I want you to be with me when I am in a place where everything is strange and Im just passing through and so goes day by day I cant keep track of names and I just want to close my eyes and when I hit the notes the way Im suppposed to do the band and I are hIgh and nothing can go wrong I always think of you I wish that you could see me now

I want you to be with me

cause all I feel and see I want you to see it too cause what I know and do I want to share it with you
