

D'Sound, Sunshine

ohh, sunshine
baby, you change the weather when you say "come on!", sunshine party never seems to end jamming on

after midnight
in the club
feeling so right
pass it on!
give me the mic', party man

make the funk
you've gotta do it on your own
all alone
but I ain't going home, no, no dancing on after midnight partyman, hear me! oh

jamming on
after midnight
groovy song
dj gives and takes
right the wrongs
with the beats and breaks, oh yeah

beauty flows
it doesn't matter who you are when you're there
you're feeling like a movie star no surprise you're in sync now partyman, here we go!
