

Da Assassin, Human Video Game

(Da Assassin)

Ever since I was younger, I was into video games
Tron or whatever, it didn't matter the name Thousands of my dollars, have been poured into all types of games, trying to get the high score
But now I think I have a favorite It's me against an ape, he's got my girl, I've got to save her!
Oh no, I feel an attach comin on Yo ready Rock C I wanna play a game of Donkey Kong

It used to be a problem this addiction I have I would feel the urge, then I'd go stark raving mad!
Break into the arcade, screamin and hollerin Anticipation puttin twenty-five dollars in any machine, I was out of control!
I didn't need quarters I brought, $10 in bank rolls Bags of quarters, I was insane
People thought that I worked there, and asked me for change
But I would get defensive and yell, "LEAVE ME ALONE!"
These are my quarters stupid, GO GET YOUR OWN!"
Dude walked away with this look in his eyes like,
"Yo man.. I wonder what's wrong with that guy?"
I was addicted, a video burn-out and I would go crazy when the guy would have to turn out the lights at midnight, I'd fall on my knee "Have a heart pal, one more game please?"
Some nights I might sleep on the subway or outside of the arcade until it opened up the next day And when it opened at a quarter to ten it was the same old thing all over again
I was doin bad, my future was bleek
I'd rather play games than eat and sleep until one day, this guy came along
He didn't have a radio but he was playin a song

I got curious, so I said, "Yo!
What's that noise?" (What noise? I don't know!)
"No feel, that noise you was makin there!" (What this? *starts beatboxing*) "Yeahhhh!
That was def man, where'd you learn to do that?" (Man, I don't know, I guess I always knew that I had this talent deep down inside
You wanna hear some more man?) "Yeah!" (Come on let's take a ride)
He made sounds like I never HEARD before and he still had more!
Then he got me hyped when he played this incredible song and I +LOST MY MIND+ when Ready C played Donkey Kong

Now my life is wonderful and I feel great I haven't been in the arcade since seventy-eight
Thanks to Ready C I'm on an upward trail
Because he's always by my side, he never fails me Whenever I have a video attack he's right there by my back, keepin me on track
So if I bug out, and act like a lunatic he does Donkey Kong, and as soon as it gets to my eardrums, from his vocal chords
I get hyped up!
No matter how bored I am, he always comes through Oh my fault, hold up, wait, let me tell you who Ready Rock C, here's a brief description of the things that he can do in his musical position Ready Rock C makes sounds with his mouth Yo Ready give me an example of what I'm talkin about

(GAME OVER!)
(Yo, Scrammy, why you still standin there?)
(The game is over.. HAHHAHAHAHA, suckers!)
