

Da Buzz, Tonight Is The Night

We are going to mine
It's gonna be alright
You got to make up your mind
Gonna be alright...

I don't know if I wanna go
Through the door
Out of your life
I don't know if I wanna see
Another girl walking by your side

You are the fire in my heart
That keeps me warm
You are the meaning of my life

Baby 'cause tonight is the night
We're gonna be alright
Whatever you do I won't let you go
Baby 'cause tonight is the night
When we're gonna be alright
Whatever it takes you will be my love

Tonight is the night

You took away a piece of me
When you said goodbye and left the key
I didn't mean to say those words
And now it see, baby you are hurt

'Cause you are a fire in my heart
That keeps me warm
And you are a meaning of my life

Baby 'cause tonight is the night
We're gonna be alright
Whatever you do I won't let you go
Baby 'cause tonight is the night
When we're gonna be alright
Whatever it takes you will be my love

Tonight is the night

Then we go into my bedroom
And you say, "I make you feel alright"
Then we kiss feel like I wanna fly
And you say, "Girl I love you"

Tonight is the night
Whatever it takes you will be my love

Baby 'cause tonight is the night
We're gonna be alright
Whatever you do I won't let you go
Baby 'cause tonight is the night
When we're gonna be alright
Whatever it takes you will be my love

Tonight is the night
