

DaBaby, THAT'S WHY I CREEP

That's why I creep...

Its only a few of us that get to experience this journey like this ya know what I'm sayin
The ups is up as it can get ya know what I'm sayin
Its down as it can get too its beautiful ya know

Before a nigga came up, they was waiting on Baby to blow
And now I got these fuck niggas hating, they waiting on Baby to go
That's why I creep, yeah
Only fuck with real niggas
That's why I ain't deep
My family got to get a little richer
That's why I ain't sleep
You could never take the pressure that come with it
That's why he ain't me

Yeah, Imma grab blog site nigga, hit 'em put his face on the floor
Why?, yeah, 'cause y'all niggas bitches
Playing games with real niggas
No more of these niggas crossing real life lines, playing 'round with a nigga children
Wasn't tripping on y'all when y'all played with my paper 'cause I understand that's what come with it
So I had to grow
Get a little more focused
And stop running from pain
Had to take it and show it
Had to stand on my name and everyone else on my shoulders (can't never forget how)

Before a nigga came up, they was waiting on Baby to blow
And now I got these fuck niggas hating, they waiting on Baby to go
That why I creep, yeah
Only fuck with real niggas
That's why I ain't deep
My family got to get a little richer
That's why I ain't sleep
You could never take the pressure that come with it
That's why he ain't me

Yes I, for you fyi, I'm the motherfucking best out
I like women with caramel skin like the girl you seen with Chilli and Left Eye
Especially the ones with brown skin like Chilli and Left Eye
Who pray when I'm stressed out
Baby can you give me TLC
I'm on the road alone, I wish you was with me
And yeah, I see the way they hate on me like hoes
Feel even better if they hate because I'm free
Uh, football niggas can't hold me
I'm giving penalties like I'm a referee, I ain't did shit that I done already told you
Convinced none of these bitch ass nigga met a soldier
Convinced none of these bitches never met them a Kirk
So good to be true, type of nigga, I told you I ain't perfect
You thought that I was, it ain't work, now you trying to convince the whole world Imma jerk
And these the everyday struggles of a real nigga
I'm talking a good nigga
May come off like a fuck nigga
But don't trip, it just look different
The shit I been through need to be in a book, nigga
And plus I done shook niggas, and don't ever judge a book by the way that cover on it
Or the way that it look nigga 'cause

Before a nigga came up, they was waiting on Baby to blow
And now I got these fuck niggas hating, they waiting on Baby to go
That why I creep, yeah
Only fuck with real niggas
That's why I ain't deep
My family got to get a little richer

That's why I ain't sleep
You could never take the pressure that come with it
That's why he ain't me
