

Dada, Blue Girl

Blue girl, Blue girl

Blue girl, why so alone?
You're 'bout as lucky as a weekend in Lebanon
Blue girl, don't be afraid
I know you're down, but you're starting to fade

Father told you twice to keep it all inside yourself
Let me hear you cry, I want to

Blue girl, Blue girl
I want to be there when the rain starts to fall
Blue girl

Blue girl, don't run away
You won't get far, been halfway to yesterday
Blue girl, come take my hand
I just might be the one, the one who will understand

Father told you twice to keep it all inside yourself
Let me hear you cry, I want to

Blue girl, Blue girl
I want to be there when the rain starts to fall
Blue girl

Try to breathe
Everything goes from your mind
Let her be
Come on, baby please
'Cause you can be anything you want
Come fall with me

(solo)

Let me hear you cry, I want to
I want to

Blue girl, blue girl
I want to be there when the rains starts to fall
Blue girl
I want to be there when the rain starts to fall
Blue girl
(Yeah)
