

Dag Nasty, Fall

I can last a lifetime or be done with in a day
I can be picked up
I can be thrown away hope that I can bounce back after each and every fall I'm supposed to bounce back
I am a rubber ball
hope that I can bounce back after each and every fall but it's easier to fall
I'm supposed to bounce back
I can't hit you hard enough to make you feel you're not alone
I can't touch you soft enough to make you feel you're flesh and bone but I'll keep trying even though I'm not getting through I'll keep trying trying to get to you
