

Dagny, Heartbreak In The Making

Have you ever seen
How there's always beauty in a tragedy
On my skin
Shivers dancing everywhere your hands have been

Oh, it's a good thing that you can't see
It's a bad thing before it's too late
Oh, it's a good thing that a bad thing
can feel this great

You're like a stranger I've already met
You're like a fantasy I've had in my head
I'm giving in when I know how it ends
You feel like a heartbreak in the making

You're like a stranger I've already met
You're like a fantasy I've had in my head
Don't know if time's gonna mend me again
You feel like a heartbreak in the making

Bittersweet
Always had a taste for the bitter sweet
Recklessly
I run towards the danger
When it's close to me

Oh, it's a good thing that you can't see a it's a bad thing before it's too late
Oh, It's a good thing that a bad thing
can feel this great

You're like a stranger I've already met
You're like a fantasy I've kept in my head
I'm giving in but I know how it ends
You feel like a heartbreak in the making

You're like a stranger I've already met
You're like a fantasy I've had in my head
Don't know if time's gonna mend me again
You feel like a heartbreak in the making

Uh, uh
Nothing's like a heartbreak in the making
Uh, uh
Nothing's like a heartbreak in the making
And I'd do it again and again and again and again Baby, I'm yours for the taking I'd do it again and again and again and again
Cuz nothings like a heartbreak in the making

Have you ever seen how there's always beauty in a tragedy
