

Daiquiri, She's A Stayer

You can't say it
You wanna be polite
Another write off
You're staying in tonight
You can't say it
You're staring at the door get out now you could stay or go somewhere anywhere
nowhere else
She's not going anywhere

She's got time to spare
She's got tie to spend
This visit never ends
You can't say it
By now the door is locked She may be cute but You're running out of talk
You never touched her She's cancelled all your plans She's cut but The stayers got a man
somewhere anywhere
nowhere else
She's not going anywhere
She's got time to spare
She's got time to spend
This visit never ends
somewhere anywhere
nowhere else
She's a stayer time manipulator
Your time waster
Your seat chaser
Time manipulator Door bells rings just ignore it it might be her Half hour later it's still ringing you know its her
