

Daisy the Great, Liar

I exhausted all the words I know
Trying to find synonyms in code
So it's still low commitment
So I can take it back
If you said let's be friends instead or something else like that

And when we talk I ramble to fill in the space in time when I'd kiss you I'm always rambling dumb s

Are you on to me am I the villain
Am I just a young embarrassed kid
Is this letting me down easy
Which one of us can't take the hint

And when we talk I ramble to fill in the space in time when I'd kiss you I'm always rambling dumb s

(buckle up)

I would be a liar
Before I'd show my cards
I'm an animal
I wish I was made of what you are
And I am quiet
Because I am scared of what I want
And I am tired
Of thinking it's you and
I would be a liar
Before I'd show my cards
I'm an animal
I wish I was made of what you are
And I am quiet
Because I am scared of what I want
And I am tired
Of thinking it's you and nothing else
