

Daisy the Great, The Record Player Song

I've got a record player that was made in 2014
Dyed my hair blue, it came out a seasick sort of green
I like vintage dresses when they fall just below my knees
I pretend I scraped them climbing in the trees
Sometimes, I think all I'm ever doing is (Trees)
Trying to convince myself I'm alive (Trees)
Sometimes, I think all I'm ever doing is (Trees)
Trying to convince myself I'm alive (Trees)

Wipe my eyes and cut me off (Wipe my eyes, I'm crying)
I'm just crying for attention (For attention)
Wish I'd been a teenage rebel (A teenage rebel)
Never even got detention

I don't really love you
I just said that for a change of pace
I'm sorry, sometimes I don't recognize my face

I've got a record player that was made in 2014
Dyed my hair blue, it came out a seasick sort of green
I like vintage dresses when they fall just below my knees
I pretend I scraped them climbing in the trees
Sometimes, I think all I'm ever doing is (Trees)
Trying to convince myself I'm alive (Trees)
Sometimes, I think all I'm ever doing is (Trees)
Trying to convince myself I'm alive (Trees)

I need a dictionary
Someone look me up and define me
Please remind me who I'm supposed to be around you
So you will do what I want you to
I'm always winning the wrong game
I don't remember my real name

I've got a record player that was made in 2014
Dyed my hair blue, it came out a seasick sort of green
I like vintage dresses when they fall just below my knees
I pretend I scraped them climbing in the trees
Sometimes I think all I'm ever doing is (Trees)
Trying to convince myself I'm alive (Trees)
Sometimes I think all I'm ever doing is (Trees)
Trying to convince myself I'm alive (Trees)
