

Dakona, Perfect Change

Hey, please knock me down
Back down to the earth
So I can recall what all this is worth
I got what I want but thats never enough

Hey, please knock me down
Back down to my face
So I dont take for granted this beautiful place, this beautiful space
your beautiful face

Chorus:
But you, you make it so easy
You got the perfect change
The perfect change for me
You make it so easy you got the perfect change
The perfect change for me

Stop, dont throw me no rope
Ive said my good-byes
Id rather be here in the pull of this tide
Did I just close my eyes
Or did I open my mind
For the very first time

Chorus

Ive said my good-byes
Id rather be here in the pull of this tide
Did I just close my eyes
Or did I open my mind
For the very first time

Chorus
