Dakona, Perfect Change

Hey, please knock me down Back down to the earth So I can recall what all this is worth I got what I want but thats never enough

Hey, please knock me down Back down to my face So I dont take for granted this beautiful place, this beautiful space your beautiful face

Chorus: But you, you make it so easy You got the perfect change The perfect change for me You make it so easy you got the perfect change The perfect change for me

Stop, dont throw me no rope lve said my good-byes ld rather be here in the pull of this tide Did I just close my eyes Or did I open my mind For the very first time

Chorus

Ive said my good-byes Id rather be here in the pull of this tide Did I just close my eyes Or did I open my mind For the very first time

Chorus
