

Dakona, Untouchable

Baby, open your eyes
Take a look around
There was a child within you oh no no
Still you beat her down down down
Sometimes I wonder...

Chorus:

If I see too much, you cant touch me
I'm untouchable
Do I know so much?
You cant love me, I'm unlovable
Do I even know, do I even know, do I even know, whats best for me?
(oh whats best for me)

Raining in the wasteland
Just across the streets
Nothing on the television
Knocks me off of my feet
sometimes I wonder...
