

Dakota, Love Won't Last

now what you gonna do about it? whats she gonna say to you?
what you gonna tell em all when you finally answer the call? who you gonna answer to when theres nobody left around? what could be the reason when theres no answer to be found?
love wont last forever if you dont want it to last forever then you do what you want, do what you want love wont last forever, if you dont want it to last forever well... so you got another girl, it can happen anytime when you got another girl its up to you to keep in line turn around and walk away say goodbye and leave alone you can love another day when you finally found your home chorus
