

Dakrua, Not Mine

Keep yourself alive, take all your time and you will survive
mindless you say?
but it's your life insane you lie to me, bloody days float around my suppliant broken heart you've disappeared
Oh, I beg you stay!
But maybe what I need is inside of me
you lie, lie...
lies inside of me
from my eyes you wish to fade you wish to fade
my friend, my love in this night
run away, run away from me, hear me now, it's sad but I feel your liar heart your liar heart
