

Dakrua, Seas Of Silence

loneliness is holding my life please give me reason why I find this hue in your glance but still I fear to look in your eyes while the dusk tints your smile

with the gold of the night

I try but I can't feign delight please give me the reason why I've been wondering 'round but still I look back for you while my thoughts wait in seas traced with the gold in the night hear my...hear my heart!

In this...in this night!
