

Dallas Crane, Come Clean

Come clean you're gonna feel much better Come clean
with me honey tonight Haven't you got a little something to tell me Cause I know where you was at last night

I heard it through a Chinese whisper I heard, but I can't say who Maybe there's something that you wanted to tell me Come clean, I wanna hear it from you

I don't wanna be your second man
I don't wanna be your second man
I don't wanna be your second man
