

Dallas Crane, Ladybird

You don't need a mister sister
You just need a man
They call you the Ladybird
Just because they can

Ladybird, Ladybird
Where you gonna fly tonight

You don't care what they all say
And I like you for that
You got on your famous red boots
And your cowboy hat

Ladybird, Ladybird
Where you gonna fly tonight

Ladybird, your house is burning
Your children are alone
There's a strange man at your window
Wondering what went wrong

Ladybird, Ladybird
Where you gonna fly tonight

So long, So long
