Dallas Crane, Ladybird

You don't need a mister sister You just need a man They call you the Ladybird Just because they can

Ladybird, Ladybird Where you gonna fly tonight

You don't care what they all say And I like you for that You got on your famous red boots And your cowboy hat

Ladybird, Ladybird Where you gonna fly tonight

Ladybird, your house is burning Your children are alone There's a strange man at your window Wondering what went wrong

Ladybird, Ladybird Where you gonna fly tonight

So long, So long
