

Dallas Crane, Under The Moon

Come and see the morning
Do you wanna see the daylight
You can be anything
And anybody you like
I don't wanna be alone
Bringing in a new day
So come with me little one
We'll turn over a new page
We're all going to a party under the moon tonight
We're gonna wake up anybody not outside
Singing Auld Lang Syne

It's been a long hard year
Looking for a glory
The lines on your forehead
Tell a better story
I don't wanna be alone
So come and have a good time
Put a little on your gum
Don't you wanna see the daylight
We're all going to a party under the moon tonight
We're gonna wake up anybody not outside
Singing Auld Lang Syne

It's been a long hard year
But that's another day now
So go and tell everyone
There's gonna be a hoe-down
The sky's gonna glow red
A little after midnight
Come with me little one
Don't you wanna see the daylight
We're all going to a party under the moon tonight
We're gonna wake up anybody not outside
