

Damien Davis, Judy

Judy

Judy left about an hour ago, she never said two words to me, she just up and vanished like a flower
Judy left an hour ago she's never coming back she's taken my soul.

Judith's like a thing that can never be found shes gone and left me on the ground, like damaged goods
Oh Judy, OJudy,
Judith left without saying goodbye all day long I sit and cry.

Judys just a memory thats lost among the turbulence of my scattered thoughts my soul she'll not grow
Judys like a new born star she lives at ease from me so far.

All rights reserved copyright owned by Damien Davis