

Damnation, Little Old Man Dog

He watches with one squinty eye
His breath is worse than his bite
He stands only ten inches high
You know, he'll fight

Chorus:

Little Old Man Dog X4

He's never too old to beg

He wants to mate with your leg

He's leaving stools in the way

For you to find

(Chorus)

He's pinching a loaf

He's in love with your leg
