

Damnells, Kung Fu Grip Kiss

Forgive me baby, for I'm so full of loss.
I'm swelled up with sadness, and broken in parts.
Forgive me baby, I know not what I do.
But I do know, Honey, that I love you.

Forgive me child, for the tears that I've cried.
I'm so frightened to death, that I'm startin' to die.
Forgive me child, if I can't find the truth,
I was lookin' for Jesus, and I wound up with you.

Cracks in the ceilin',
Split-screen feelin',
And the sappy blues.
We've got nothin' to lose, 'cept me missin' you.

No one's gonna let you down,
No, not while I'm around.
No one's gonna leave you here,
I will always be near.

Can't you feel this?
It's like a kung fu grip kiss.
There are stars just for you. Wish.

Forgive me love, if the curse wasn't clear.
There was so much to be when I looked in the mirror.
Forgive me love, for my broken bones.
It's this thing that's hard, breathing right through the phone.

Forgive me grace, for my part in the war.
I'm beatin' you down, breakin' right through the door.
Forgive me grace, for the distance I feel.
I was runnin' away from this thing that was real.

Cracks in the ceilin',
Split-screen feelin',
And the sappy blues.
We've got nothin' to lose, 'cept me missin' you.

No one's gonna let you down,
No, not while I'm around.
No one's gonna leave you here,
I will always be near.

Can't you feel this?
It's like a kung fu grip kiss.
There are stars just for you. Wish.

Becomin' free, prisoner, from his burnin' self.
I'm with you, baby, rain or shine, heaven or hell.
I can't be alone, without writin' this sad, sad song.
When are you comin' home?

No one's gonna let you down,
No, not while I'm around.
No one's gonna leave you here,
I will always be near.

No one's gonna let you down,
No, not while I'm around.
No one's gonna leave you here,
I will always be near.

No one's gonna let you down,

No, not while I'm around.
No one's gonna leave you here,
I will always be near.

No one's gonna let you down,
No, not while I'm around.
No one's gonna leave you here,
I will always be near.

No one's gonna let you down,
No, not while I'm around.
No one's gonna leave you here,
I will always be near.
