

Damnells, Sleepsinging

It's up to you now
This place is filling up with smoke
You won't let me breathe in or out
So I resolve to cut my own throat

And I will never change
Not for anyone
Sometimes I wish
I could leave myself alone
I could leave myself alone

Each day you bring me closer to going nowhere
Like sleep walking I'm sleepsinging, yeah
Someday you're gonna wish
You'd taken better care of me
Like sleep walking I'm sleepsinging, yeah

I have been such a fool for you
I put my faith in things you could never do
Now I'm chasing myself to catch up with you
And you mixed every drink of lies with the truth

I will never change no
Will you ever change no
