Dan Bern, Smartie Mine

The paint is not yet dry
The clothes are not yet on
Only one place where I could

Go to be understood

Only one place

Only one face

Smartie mine

Smartie mine

Smartie mine

Smartie mine

I wanna go

Deep down smartie mine

Down a shaft of green

Down a shaft of blue

I have a paint brush

I wanna spread my colors around

Not to be careless, though

Only one place to go

Smartie mine

Smartie mine

Smartie mine

Smartie mine

Deep down under the ground

There's a place where it's always sun

Deep down under the Earth

There's chocolate for everyone

There's chocolate for everyone

Down a shaft of red

Down a shaft of red

Not be too nervous though

We've come too far

Smartie mine

I wanna go

Deep down smartie mine

Smartie mine

Smartie mine
