

Dan Fogelberg, Once In Love

Once in love you'll always be a lover
Once is all it takes
You will give your heart up to another
Even if it breaks
You can say this fever's sure to leave you
It's bound to fade with time
And you can lie
But your heart just won't believe you
Hearts just aren't that blind

[Chorus]
Some say love's a game
But she holds all the cards
The hands are never ours to choose
And once love has made her play
She never goes away

Win or lose
The well runs dry
And it takes its time in filling
And sometimes seems so deep
Even though the flesh is often willing
The spirit gets so weak

[Chorus]
Once in love you'll always be a lover
Bide your time 'til then
If you should lose
There'll always be another
So you can try again
You can try again
