

Dan Hill, In Your Eyes

I think I finally know you
I can see beyond your smile
I think that I can show you
That what we have is still worth while

Don't you know that love is like a thread
That keeps unraveling the bed
It ties us back together in the end

In your eyes
I can see my dreams reflections
In your eyes
I found the answers to my questions
In your eyes
I can see the reason why our love's alive
In your eyes
We're drifting safely back to shore
And I think I've finally learned to love you more

And you warned me that life changes
And that know one really knows
Whether time will make us strangers
Or whether time will make us grow

Ohh, even though the winds of time will change
In a world where nothing stays the same
Through it all, our love will still remain

In your eyes
I can see my dreams reflections
In your eyes
I found the answers to my questions
In your eyes
I can see the reason why our love's alive
In your eyes
We're drifting safely back to shore
And I think I've finally learned to love you more

In your eyes
I can see the reason why our love's alive
In your eyes
You and I
We're drifting safely back to shore
And I think I've finally learned to love you more
