

Dana Glover, Falling Into Love

[guitar]

Hold on my heart
Remember what you've been through
Be still my soul
and let yourself be renewed

You've been here before
So tell me what i must do
Don't lose your way
'Cause I'm following after you

And it feels like
Im falling into love I
Can't believe what i feel like
Falling into love
I'm falling into love

Why do I smile when there's no one else around
These butterflies well they can't seem to settle down

Oh it feels like
I'm falling Into love I
Can't believe what I feel like
Falling into love

Oh it feels like
I'm falling for the first time
I can't believe that its real life
I'm falling into love
Oh I'm falling in to love

If I am dreaming please let me never awake la la la la

And it feels like
I'm falling into love I
Can't believe what i feel like
I'm falling into love
Oh It feels like
I'm falling for the first time
I can't believe this love is real I..
I'm falling into love
I'm falling into love yea
Falling into love
Falling in falling in falling in
I'm falling into love
