

Dana International, Love Is All There Is

I know you want to hold me tight,
There's just one way to do it right.
Show me passion that I can't resist.
Love is all there is.

Shiny things can fade to rust,
Many dreams can turn to dust.
But in the end a kiss is still a kiss.
Love is all there is.

Sometimes it all works out,
Sometimes it falls apart.
But love's the only chance,
I'm taking with my heart.

Sometimes we all want more,
Than what we have to give.
All I want is love,
'Cause love is all there is.

Are you the sun that'll keep me warm?
When summer turns to winter's storm?
I need to know you'll always bare like this,
Love is all there is.

Sometimes it all works out,
Sometimes it falls apart.
But love's the only chance,
I'm taking with my heart.

Sometimes we all want more,
Than what we have to give.
All I want is love,
'Cause love is all there is.

Love is all there is
Ooh yeah Ooh
Sometimes, sometimes

Sometimes it all works out,
Sometimes it falls apart.
But love's the only chance,
I'm taking with my heart.

Sometimes we all want more,
Than what we have to give.
All I want is love,
'Cause love is all there is.
