Love is cold yeah
I don't need
Love is cold yeah
I don't need

I don't need you here by my side no more no no
And when I feel your love deep inside
I will forget oh yeah
So don't you dare come knocking on my door
When you need someone to hold
'Cause every door and window is locked
I can live
Live without your love
