

Dance Gavin Dance, Open Your Eyes And Look I

Sunrise wake up stand up look into red eyes Stayed up all night thinking of reasons why I cant feel your skin Is this plaguing your brain?
Couldn't brace yourself in the morphine hallway lying on the ground with a heart as a ball and chain message to the bird I know your wings will be fine spread them on the floor, learn to heal with take time close the hatch and lock us inside.
Now breath in wide
I'll forgive you later
Come on its time
Just stand aside
Watch this turn to dust I wont know when you've fallen Now it all takes shape I wont go until you follow
I don't even get the movie cold ice feels so soothing I don't feel anything, stuck in the passing lane break, wait, stop, back off the bitch Block out the sound of the police beckoning duck in the back and the lights will shut off again ration the wine, laughing in revelry caution I'm drugged, we'll here comes the symphony You can go for it just don't ignore it the rapist gives God a hug.
