

Dance Hall Crashers, Remember To Breathe

do you know what you did today how much more do you think she'll handle this way what are you doing this for leave her alone she'll never ask for a thing so you keep on taking them from her when is she ever gonna get her turn to hold onto something just for once and doesnt she get to..

Close your eyes, I'll watch over you Just tell me what you want me to do Close your eyes, just remember to breathe

And i guess, but it seems so unfair at some point, your gonna at least pretend to care and i hope that you are paying attention because i know she is how can you expect her to be so strong im sure that, her mother must have asked you to stop shes had enough, just allow her to smile for a day or doesnt she get to..

Close your eyes, just remember to breathe(4x)
