Danger Radio, Things

Cover it up
And keep a distance
The anger that burns inside of me
Won't put up with all
Your flaws and mistakes
Or how you take it out on me

Keep telling yourself
That I was wrong here
Believe all the lies he fed to you
'Cause girl if you wanted something sincere
I know that he'll never pull through

Waiting for the day you turn yourself around

Can't stop feeling the things I feel Locked into something so surreal You have me going crazy Have it all wrong If you think you can walk out on me

You said you're in love And can't describe it But has it ever ocurred to you? While your asleep alone in your bed He's out all night with someone new

Waiting for the day you turn yourself around

Can't stop feeling the things I feel Locked into something so surreal You have me going crazy Have it all wrong if you think you can walk out on me

Waiting for the day you turn yourself around

Can't stop feeling the things I feel Locked into something so surreal You have me going crazy Have it all wrong If you think you can walk out on me

Waiting for the day you turn yourself around

Can't stop feeling the things I feel Locked into something so surreal You have me going crazy Have it all wrong If you think you can walk out on me
