

Danger Radio, Think About It

(I don't even want to think about it)

I don't even want to think about it
I don't even want to think about it

She's got me going
Crazy out of control
Something is taking a hold of me
I can't keep hiding
Girl, I want you to know
That I want you and it's plain to see

Tell me what to do
Tell me how it is
Or how it could be
I've been trying to
But I'll never know

I don't even want to think about it

The way she lies
And faults her thighs
Changes my mind
I don't even want to think about it
The things she says
The signs I read
Lays in my bed
I don't even want to think about it

I can't stop thinking 'bout the way that she moves
Or how she brushes up against me
Something about her that gets me all confused
Keeps bringing me back down to my knees

Thoughts of you
In my head
I am restless
But can't say
So please tell me

Tell me what to do
Tell me how it is
Or how it could be
I've been trying to
But I'll never know

I don't even want to think about it

The way she lies
And faults her thighs
Changes my mind
I don't even want to think about it
The things she says
The signs I read
Lays in my bed
I don't even want to think about it

Her touch, her feel
The love she steals
But I still deal
I don't even want to think about it
The things she says

Stays in my head
Caught up again.
I don't even want to think about it

I'd give anything...
I'd give anything...
I'd give anything to be with you
I'd give anything...
(Thoughts of you in my head
I am restless, but can't say)
I'd give anything...
I'd give anything...
(Thoughts of you in my head
I am restless, but can't say)
...To be with you.

(I don't even want to think about it)

The way she lies
And faults her thighs
Changes my mind
I don't even want to think about it
The things she says
The signs I read
Lays in my bed
I don't even want to think about it

Her touch, her feel
The love she steals
But I still deal
I don't even want to think about it
The things she says
Stays in my head
Caught up again.
