

Danger Radio, You All Believe

Everything you thought you wanted
Everything you thought you'd need
Came along and brought you down
And now you're left alone crying

They always seem to say the sweetest things
Finally he made it clear, finally she made a move
Focus now, don't give up hope, there's always something you can do
To make it through, you've got so much to prove

Foolish girl, don't waste your energy
Don't waste integrity, he's not worth anything
Foolish boy, don't waste your dollar bills
She'll be gone by tomorrow, start up with the sorrow

You all believe, you all believe
That love is gonna save us
But nothing good comes from it, trust me
You all believe, you all believe
That love is coming to you
But it's your death, you'll finally see

Pull you up a little higher, make the fall much more severe
Now you're waiting at the bottom, bleeding and no one appears
To save you 'cause your fate seems so surreal
So surreal

Foolish girl, don't waste your energy
Don't waste integrity, he's not worth anything
Foolish boy, don't waste your dollar bills
She'll be gone by tomorrow, start up with the sorrow

You all believe, you all believe
That love is gonna save us
But nothing good comes from it, trust me
You all believe, you all believe
That love is coming to you
But it's your death, you'll finally see

You all believe, you all believe
That love is gonna save us
But nothing good comes from it, trust me
You all believe, you all believe
That love is coming to you
But it's your death, you'll finally see

Now let me tell you a little something about love
(All you people giving yourselves up to it, all you people...)
Let me tell you something about love
Let me tell you, tell you, tell you

All you people giving yourselves up to it
All you people giving into your hearts
All you people giving yourselves up to it
All you people giving into your hearts

Start up with the sorrow

You all believe, you all believe
That love is gonna save us
But nothing good comes from it, trust me
You all believe, you all believe
That love is coming to you
But it's your death, you'll finally see

You all believe, you all believe
That love is gonna save us
But nothing good comes from it, trust me
You all believe, you all believe
That love is coming to you
But it's your death, you'll finally see
