

Danger To The System, Don't Tell Me How To Live

your bossing me around is killing me when are you going to finally see i just want to live my own life so don't stab me with your knife (ah!) by always telling me what I've done wrong now I'm through with you, so long bitchin me out and telling me about the way you want my life to be i know i've done thjings wrong i've made mistakes but dont we all? everyone eventually seems to fall so dont tell me how to live its my fuckin life so let me live my fuckin life don't tell me how to live!

and dont tell me what to do because i'm getting sick of you your lectures are getting old and now my words are getting cold i just want to live life while i can so far in my life, time has ran

[Chorus]
