

Daniel Johnston, Love Not Dead

It was love at first sight when I talked to her it was the beginning of a real good time all I knew was her and when I came around love had lingered on my mind she said on the telephone she wished me well. so alive with a spell until I hung up early I've realized

I've been dead for so long all my memories of her like a fading light I suffer thinking of our love for so long back in the early days I saw a lot of her she was the coolest girl in town and when I saw her standing there everything was all right I took a journey in my mind and as I saw her beauty she was so kind that was a good time everyday we met it was wild I felt like a child I loved to see her smile and as I played piano I was so inspired I always had a real good time and when last we met I just can't forget

I took for sure I love her bad I just can't ignore her loving response I always knew she'd be all right she made me think I was okay and the love seemed so real I still got feelings for her and when I'm on tour singing about her forever I'll remember blessings and the good times we had

I really tried to play the game of love and I hate to lose maybe I can win somehow and so I'll dream of her for a thousand years until I see another girl that's the way it always was
