

Daniel Merriweather, Water and a Flame

Seven days has gone so fast
I really thought the pain would pass Its been only an hour since I thought of you cause youre not answering the phone Id settle for a busy tone at least by that I know, that youre okay

A girl like you aint meant to go away... ohh

[Chorus]

And now youre gone,
aint nothing else I want
And now that its over, theres nothing else I want

What have I done,
looks I was wrong
is everything really meant to change?
I guess were like water and a flame water and a flame

[Adele]

Im tired of this empty house
I need a drink to get me out a couple more till I forget your name I saw a boy that looked like you I didnt quite know what to do
I took a power of will to break my stare
I realized what I wanted wasnt there

[Chorus]

And now youre gone,
aint nothing else I want
And now that its over,
theres nothing else I want
What have I done,
looks like I was wrong
is everything really meant to change?
I guess were like water and a flame
water and a flame

[Middle]

Daniel: If you see me coming

Adele: I look away, I look away

Daniel: And if youre minds made up

Adele: I look away, I will look away

Daniel: If you worry about..

Adele: Im ok, Im ok, yes I am

Daniel: All this sorrow and this pain is gonna go away!

[Chorus]

And now youre gone,
And now that its over,
theres nothing else I want
What have I done,
looks I was wrong
is everything really meant to change?
I guess were like water and a flame
