

Daniel Schumacher, Anything But Love

When I get older
Feelings get colder
But I will promise you
You're always in my heart
Goodbye tomorrow
Hold back my sorrow
Feeling like heaven
When you're close
When you're close to me
But I can't give you anything but love
Oh that's for sure,
I can't give you anything but love
You can't ignore
Come take my heart for granted
And give me all your heart
Baby will you trust me
Right here from the start?
Which way you're going,
Your love is growing
After the lights go down
You're always in my heart
Love is like fire
And then there's desire
After the curtains fall
I kiss away
I kiss away the pain
But I can't give you anything but love
Oh that's for sure,
I can't give you anything but love
You can't ignore
Come take my heart for granted
And give me all your heart
Baby will you trust me
Right here from the start?
But I can't give you anything but love
Oh that's for sure,
I can't give you anything but love
You can't ignore
Come take my heart for granted
And give me all your heart
Baby will you trust me
Right here from the start?
Which way you're going
Your love is growing
Which way you're going
Your love is growing
