

Daniel Spaleniak, Bitter Stone

i have a story to tell you it's dark
and i'm flying
my heart is burning
i never learn
i let it burn

bitter stone within me grown i got to
got to let it go

you gotta let me go
i want to live my life and take it slow

you gotta let me go
i feel like a shadow, staying low

you gotta let me go
i gotta find myself, i have to know

you gotta let me go
i can't live like this, i have to grow

you gotta let me go

you gotta let me go
i feel like a shadow, staying low
