

Danity Kane, Flashback

Yeah this is dedicated to you Crossing paths, I saw the past Realized how good it was The smell of yours
And feel of your touch
Memory had me gone
But you're with her not with me now and I want everything that she has I think of you and I'm lying in bed
And the image of you loving her plays in my head

You messed up and you lost (well you messed up)
story over babe
& now you're asking why

(why why why)

You messed up and you lost (you messed up and now you're asking why)
story over babe
& now you're asking why

(why? Did you do this to me?)

You messed up and you lost (Baby! Baby baby baby!!)
story over babe
& now you're asking why

You messed up and you lost (She could never love you baby) story over babe (She could never love you, no) & now you're asking why
